

How going hungry affects children for their whole lives.

Back in Winter, 2018 we supported Chris Baraniuk, a U.K. journalist who was writing an article for Mosaic <https://mosaicscience.com/> about the impact of food poverty / malnutrition on public health. Chris reached out to Centrestage to find out more about our unique 'Centrestage Food' approach through Dignified Food Provision.

Thanks to Shenna Boyd, Operation Manager for 'On the Road and EAT' activities for working with Chris and showcasing all that we do each day across our Ayrshire communities.

Read the full report:

<https://mosaicscience.com/story/food-poverty-nutrition-health-austerity-child-development-diet-benefits/>

#funfoodfolk