

SCOTTISH POP ROCKER 'KT TUNSTALL' ARRIVES AT CENTRESTAGE.

As part of the run-up to national supermarket Lidl's opening of their 100th Scottish store, they've teamed up with Scottish Chart success KT Tunstall to bring 'Lidl Live' – a 'chart-topping' tour that invites everyone from across Scotland to join them on celebrating this momentous milestone.

We were delighted to be asked by our friends at Lidl to host the singer during her Ayrshire stop of the tour to facilitate both a cooking demonstration and live performance.

Relishing the opportunity to perform on home turf, the star has found time to join the celebration of food and music in a busy schedule between her 'West Coast Ramble' tour of California, supporting pop rock duo Hall & Oates at Madison Square Gardens and joining 80's legend Rick Astley's UK tour in 2020.

Fun, Food, Folk

The singer created an anchovies and courgetti dish with help from some of our Centrestage participants including Michelle Wardle; "It was such an amazing experience to get the opportunity to be part of this today, although I'm not a big fan of the anchovies in the dish! It was great to see it all coming together. I'm now looking forward to watching her perform some of her classics."

The event finished with a live set on the Centrestage Theatre stage with her band, treating the audience to some of her well known hits including 'Suddenly I See' and 'Black Horse and A Cherry Tree.' She will now head off to perform a sell out gig in Ayr Town Hall later this evening with proceeds from ticket sales going to support the STV Children's Appeal.
