CORONAVIRUS

Latest information for our staff and customers.

COVID-19 UPDATE - SATURDAY 14TH MARCH 2020.

We continue to monitor information being shared in relation to Coronavirus (COVID-19) and take very seriously the health & wellbeing of our customers and staff.

Our Performances:

In line with the advice from government and health authorities and given our auditorium has a capacity of 200 which has no impact on the emergency services, our upcoming performances are all currently scheduled to go ahead as planned. We will continue to follow advice and take any further steps necessary as the COVID-19 situation develops.

If we need to make any changes to our scheduled performances, we will communicate them through our website and our social media platforms. If you are feeling unwell or have been asked to self-isolate by the NHS, please contact us on the details below and we will help you exchange your tickets.

Our Classes & Activities:

From Monday 16th March, all other classes & activities will run as scheduled with the exception of Musical Generations. We are asking everyone visiting Centrestage, particularly those that are more vulnerable to any infection, to follow the latest advice from government on Coronavirus.
