CENTRESTAGE UPDATE ON COVID-19/CORONAVIRUS

It is with heavy hearts, given the wider implications for those we serve, that we must announce that all Centrestage classes, activities and performances will have to be suspended with immediate effect. This will be regularly reviewed in line with government health recommendations and we will let you know of any changes as they develop.

We know that for so many of us, our sessions are about so much more than the music. If anyone needs to reach out for emotional or practical support, please call 01563 551505 and our team will do their best to help in any way possible.

As a charity that relies heavily on the revenue that comes from our classes, activities and performances, we have sincerely appreciated your kindness and understanding as we navigate such uncharted waters.

All forthcoming productions for March and April will be rescheduled and all tickets already purchased will be valid for the future dates or transferable to another production. Our team will also be in touch to make sure that adjustments to future class payments can be updated accordingly.

The health and wellbeing of everyone who is part of our community has to be our priority at this most challenging time but that won't stop us connecting with you all online, so look out for some spontaneous Centrestage moments over the days ahead!

Please look after yourselves and each other.
